

ALUMNI VOICES

"I have never had a teacher who has cared so much about my well-being and I can't remember ever meeting anyone so innately talented at putting people at ease."

ALUMNI VOICES

"The atmosphere of the program and how the staff and other instructors conducted the 8 weeks was awesome. There were always activities on the weekends and other bonding activities with all classes throughout that allowed me to make life-long friends."

The University of Wisconsin-Madison is an equal opportunity and affirmative action educator and employer. We promote excellence through diversity in all programs.

ABOUT MEDLI

The Middle Eastern & Mediterranean Language Institute (MEDLI), formerly APTLI, is an eight-week summer intensive language program for undergraduate and graduate students, professionals, and non-traditional students. Students learn speaking, reading, listening, and writing skills through classroom instruction and a full range of co-curricular activities. Students will receive 8 credits and a letter grade (A-F) after completing program. MEDLI participants must complete both 4-week sessions for a total of 8 weeks. Courses meet in-person from 8:30AM-1:00PM CT, Monday-Friday.

ALUMNI VOICES

"I came into this program knowing very little Arabic and I am amazed by how much I learned."

THE WISCONSIN DIFFERENCE

SUMMER IN MADISON

Summer in Madison is not to be missed. From spending Saturday mornings at the Dane County Farmer's Market—the nation's largest—to watching a sunset on UW-Madison's iconic Terrace while enjoying live music, an outdoor film screening, or world-famous Babcock ice cream, the city serves as the perfect backdrop for your intensive language study. Enjoy lakeside running, UW's recreation center, and the city's many bike paths, which have earned Madison accolades as one of the best cities for cycling. All of these activities and more provide exciting and unique contexts for practicing as you hone your language skills.
